

Updated January 25, 2012

In addition to the LCBI Concert Choir which receives daily instruction, LCBI offers students a rich musical opportunity on campus and in the Town of Outlook itself. Please contact the school for telephone numbers and addresses to arrange for lessons, auditions or to make general inquiries.

PIANO & MUSIC THEORY (HISTORY)

Instructor: Sandy Stephenson—experienced in private in both private and school instruction in both the United States and Canada. Mrs. Stephenson has been an adjunct faculty member of LCBI for many years supporting their growth musically, spiritually and academically.

Skill Level: Instruction available for students ranging from Beginner to Advanced.

Type: Sacred, classical, contemporary, jazz, blues, pop styles.

VOCALS

Instructor: Karen Charlton—has performed professionally, won several awards and has been invited to teach at a number of international vocal clinics. Ms. Charlton has been an adjunct faculty member of LCBI for several years and also supports the LCBI Concert Choir with basic voice training.

Skill Level: Instruction available for students ranging from Beginner to Advanced.

Type: Sacred, traditional, classical, operatic, contemporary, jazz, blues and pop styles.

PERCUSSION

Instructor: Rick Delainey—has performed live professionally and in recording sessions. He has over a decade of experience in performance and can assist students who learn both by rote and by “ear.”

Skill Level: Instruction available for students ranging from Beginner to Intermediate.

Type: rock, alternative, jazz fusion. A drum set is available at the school for instruction and practice.